INTERVIEW SUMMARY

In the Office Action mailed May 17, 2005, regarding the Interview Summary on March 11, 2005, Examiner Laneau wrote that he had "no recollection that such a discussion ever took place as claims 1-11 contain no allowable subject matter."

As the undersigned stated in the Interview Summary of March 11, 2005, Examiner Laneau called the undersigned, and the undersigned prepared the Interview Summary on the same day the Examiner called. The Examiner stated that claims 1-11 were allowable and requested cancellation of claims 12-33.

Mullen et al.

S/N: 09/681,475

The undersigned called the Examiner this morning, June 13, 2005, to discuss the incongruities between the two statements and requested clarification. The Examiner stated that the conversation may have happened, but that he had no current recollection of that conversation. It is noted that MPEP §713.04, citing 35 CFR 1.133 and 37 CFR 1.2, states that it is the responsibility of the Examiner to prepare form PTOL-413B, "Examiner initiated Interview Summary" where the interview is initiated by the Examiner. As stated in Applicant's Interview Summary on March 11, 2005, Examiner Laneau called the undersigned on March 11, 2005. Applicant requests clarification and correction to the written record. Perhaps the Examiner has notes from March to which he could refer.

Additionally, Applicant notes that in the Office Action of May 17, 2005, the old telephone numbers are listed for the Examiner, the Examiner's Supervisor, and the fax number. The Examiner's Supervisor, Robert Olszewski's number is not in service and has no forwarding number associated with it. Applicant respectfully also requests that the Examiner provide corrected the telephone numbers.

Respectfully submitted,
